

KIT LAMBERT

Based in Penarth in South Wales, Kit is a writer for television and theatre. Best known for his recent work in television detective drama, including on WHITSTABLE PEARL, DEATH IN PARADISE, FATHER BROWN (lead writer), SISTER BONIFACE MYSTERIES and SHAKESPEARE & HATHAWAY; PRIVATE INVESTIGATORS, Kit has written across a wide range of successful television series. Having graduated from BBC's Writers Academy in 2012, Kit went on to write many episodes of EASTENDERS, HOLBY CITY, CASUALTY and DOCTORS, while also developing original projects with production companies such as Hat Trick Productions, BBC Studios, Headstrong, and Company Pictures. Kit has previously been commissioned to write an episode of CRITICAL for Sky One (Hat Trick) and two episodes of Red Planet Pictures' BBC Wales drama, CRASH. Twice nominated for the RTS Midlands Award for Best Writer, Kit was on the judging panel for the BAFTA Cymru Awards (Best Writer) 2020.

Currently, Kit is developing two new original crime series with BBC Studios, while also working on a book adaptation for Clapperboard Studios.

Kit is also a playwright, and has previously written plays for Paines Plough, Hijinx, Sherman Cymru, Likely Story, Kompany Malakhi, Dirty Protest, and the Hotbed Festival. He has also written showcase scripts for the acting students at the Royal Welsh College of Music & Drama.
